

Cookies policy

Premises.

This extended information was prepared for this website www.dragonfly.school (hereinafter only "Site") in accordance with statements of Provision n. 229 of 8.5.2014 by Italian Supervisory Authority (entitled "Identification of simplified procedures for information and acquisition of consent for use of cookies"), then clarified with a circular dated 4.6.2014 signed by same Authority (entitled "Internet: Privacy Authority, no to cookies for profiling without consent") as well as on basis of subsequent european and national legislation in force on this matter.

This information is therefore aimed at providing user who navigates on Site with detailed information about types and purposes of use of the cookies on Site.

Definition and types of cookies.

Cookies are small text strings that site visited by user sends to his terminal (usually the browser), where they are stored before being transmitted to same site on next visit by same user.

The cookies used on Site consist of following types:

- I. Technical cookies: technical cookies are those used for sole purpose of "carrying out transmission of a communication over an electronic communications network, or to extent strictly necessary for the provider of an information society service explicitly requested by contractor or by user to provide this service" (art. 122 of new Legislative Decree n. 196/2003); they can be divided into navigation or session cookies, which guarantee normal navigation and use of website, or into functionality cookies, which allow user to navigate according to a series of selected criteria in order to improve the service rendered to same site.
- II. Analytical cookies: they are used to collect information, in aggregate and anonymous form, on number of users and how they visit the site.
- III. Third-party cookies: they are set by a website other than the one the user is visiting; while browsing the site, the user can also receive cookies on his device that are sent to interact directly with the social platforms, using buttons and/or widgets: the interactions and information acquired through these tools are, in any case, subject to the user's privacy settings relating to each social network.

The types of cookies described above do not require the prior consent of user, in compliance with the provisions of aforementioned Provision n. 229/2014 by Privacy Authority.

Finally, it should be noted that profiling cookies have not been installed on Site, that is those cookies aimed at creating profiles relating to user, in order to send advertising messages in line with preferences expressed by same in context of browsing network.

Browser settings.

We also inform you that user can configure - freely and at any time - their privacy parameters in relation to installation and use of cookies directly through their navigation program (browser) by following relative instructions. In particular, user can set the private browsing, thanks to which your browsing program stops saving history of websites visited, any passwords entered, cookies and other information on pages visited.

Finally, we warn that in event that user decides to disable all cookies (including those of so-called technical nature), the quality and speed of services offered by Site could drastically deteriorate and access could be lost to some sections of Site.
